The Big Book of Autocorrect Fails-Tim Dedopulos 2015-01-02 The Big Book of Autocorrects is a hilarious compilation of over 350 of the very best nightmare texts ever sent. Crammed full of genuine belly-laughs, it's guaranteed to have you looking at your phone in a whole new light. In fact, you may never send a text message again!

Technology marches steadily onwards, revolutionizing the world in its path. The theory is that it makes life easier and more efficient, but you don't have to be a computer scientist to see that it's just as likely to sow confusion, chaos - and hilarity. One of the greatest villains in that regard is autocorrect. In theory, it's a genius feature that works out what you're trying to say and helps you express it correctly. In practice, it's more like your phone suddenly develops a mind of its own and insists on warping and twisting your words in the most humiliating way possible. So you send your innocent, friendly text message, only to realise - too late, too late - that in fact you're making suggestions that would appall hardened war criminals, and make veteran hookers blush. Fortunately, one person's 'absolutely devastating' is another's 'utterly hilarious'.

Damn You, Autocorrect!-Jillian Madison
2011-03-22 Sh#@ Your Phone Says "Damn You, Autocorrect!" If you own an iPhone, BlackBerry, Droid, or any smartphone, there's a good chance you've screamed that phrase out at least once. In Damn You, Autocorrect!, pop-culture blogger

Jillian Madison shows you are not alone. Filled with submissions from readers of her popular website, this laugh-out-loud funny book features cringe-worthy exchanges with parents, friends, significant others, and co-workers that contain some of the most unintentionally hilarious--and mortifying--mistakes ever caused by Autocorrect. Inside, you'll find a husband who tells his wife that he just "laid" (paid) the babysitter, a dad who tells his daughter that he and her mom are going to "divorce" (Disney), and many more epic texting fails too raunchy to list here. Whether you love technology, texting humor, or taking just a little bit of pleasure in the misfortune of others, Damn You, Autocorrect! will leave you laughing until you cry, and thankful that nothing this embarrassing has happened to you. Your Chest Hurts! It's true that we have all been in situations where our phones sent texts that felt or sounded completely inappropriate and went to the wrong recipients, and even wondered whether our phones are being controlled remotely by heartless pranksters. Whether the texts go to our parents, siblings or even employers and partners, most of them feel completely mortifying - to say the least. While it never sounds or feels funny when we're the victims, it's always sidesplitting when it's someone else involved, especially if the texts are unforgivably inappropriate. If that's what you're here for, then rest assured knowing that you've landed yourself the perfect collection! If you are wondering... Does the book have a wide variety of texts? Will it have never seen text fails and autocorrected messages? Will it leave you crying in laughter? Will it probably make you embarrass yourself if you are in public by laughing so uncontrollably that people will think something is wrong with you? If you have these and other related questions, the answer is a resounding YES! This simple and straightforward book is here with an inexhaustible string of texts that is sure to fill your afternoons and early mornings with wild laughter and amusement. Here's a bit of what you can expect to find in this book: Epic parenting text fails including fake divorce alerts, embarrassing hospital incidences to sexual autocorrect fails Hilarious relationship text fails including boyfriend heart attack, stranger texts and funny erotic girlfriend fails Funny friendly text fails including masturbating fails, drunk sender jokes and animal related fails Funny email fails including awkward texts sent to professors, professor's hilarious fails sent to whole class and hilarious autocorrected texts sent to employers ...And much more! You Look Like a Thing and I Love You-Janelle Shane 2019-11-05 AS HEARD ON NPR'S "SCIENCE FRIDAY" Discover the book that Malcolm Gladwell, Susan Cain, Daniel Pink, and Adam Grant want you to read this year, an "accessible, informative, and hilarious" introduction to the weird and wonderful world of artificial intelligence (Ryan North). "You look like a thing and I love you" is one of the best pickup lines ever... according to an artificial intelligence trained by scientist Janelle Shane, creator of the popular blog AI Weirdness. She creates silly AIs that learn how to name paint colors, create the best recipes, and even flirt (badly) with humans--all to understand the technology that governs so much of our daily lives. We rely on AI every day for recommendations, for translations, and to put cat ears on our selfie videos. We also trust AI with matters of life and death, on the road and in our hospitals. But how smart is AI really... and how does it solve problems, understand humans, and even drive self-driving cars? Shane delivers the answers to every AI question you've ever asked, and some you definitely haven't. Like, how can a computer design the perfect sandwich? What does robot-generated Harry Potter fan-fiction look like? And is the world's best Halloween costume really "Vampire Hog Bride"? In this smart, often hilarious introduction to the most interesting science of our time, Shane shows how these programs learn, fail, and adapt—and how they reflect the best and worst of humanity. You Look Like a Thing and I Love You is the perfect book for anyone curious about what the robots in our lives are thinking. "I can't think of a better way to learn about artificial intelligence, and I've never had so much fun along the way." - Adam Grant, New York Times bestselling author of Originals

Texts from Dog-October Jones 2012-11-06 He's a dog with a phone . . . My dog sends me texts. Yeah. It's weird. When October Jones figured out he could send text messages to himself on his mobile phone, he naturally decided that the best use of this discovery was to send passive-aggressive messages to himself under the guise of his bulldog. And so the exasperating, slightly delusional, and utterly endearing Dog and his alter-ego, BatDog, were born. Texts from Dog features Dog's attempts to keep the neighborhood safe from the likes of Mr. Postman and his arch-nemesis Cat-Cat—he has managed to only smash three TVs and a patio door in the process. And in between crime fighting sprees and run-ins with the squirrel mafia, there are romantic interludes with pillows, fetch sessions gone terribly awry, and the abusive banter only a bromance between man and his text-savvy dog can spawn. For those of us who have ever had a conversation with a pet in our heads, Texts from Dog will make you laugh out loud and perhaps even make you think twice about leaving your pet home alone for the day.

Texts from Mittens-Angie Bailey 2015-04-01 Texts from Mittens is a series of text message conversations between a snappy, self-absorbed housecat named Mittens and his long-suffering human, a single woman who works away from home during the day. Mittens relentlessly hassles his human all day long, while only taking breaks to watch Judge Judy, hang with his best friend Stumpy, complain about the antics of Drunk Patty the neighbor, ask Grandma for money to buy useless items from QVC, and harass the "filthy beast" dog, Phil. Angie Bailey is an award-winning writer and blogger, humorist, and professional member of the Cat Writers'

Association. Her primary blog, Catladyland, has won many awards, and her humor writing is featured nearly daily on Catster.com, one of the most popular cat sites on the Web. She loves to photograph her cats in silly poses and sleeps with one eye open. And yes, she has three cats. "Each installment of Texts From Mittens is like a little gift to brighten your day!" —Kate Benjamin, Hauspanther founder and co-author of Catification with Jackson Galaxy "Texts From Mittens makes me wish my cat had thumbs! This is a hilarious book; Angie Bailey has done it again!" —Jeremy Greenberg, Author of Sorry I Barfed on Your Bed "We all knew that cats were hilarious, but Ms. Bailey's sardonic cat quips really take their mannerisms, attitude and occasional apathy to another level." —Susan Michals, Curator of Cat Art Show Los Angeles Come home! There's an emergency! What?? Are you OK? My dish is half empty! I'll be home soon. You wish starvation upon me! Stop being dramatic. Am weeak. Caan hasrdly tyyppe. Are you going to wear those black pants on your bed? Yes. I have a date. They're comfortable. Mittens, get off my pants! FYI: Poly-blend makes your butt look big Text Fails-Alex Nice 2020-12-19 Alexander: My half brother is 6'3 Daniel: Christ, imagine if he were a full brother Laughing is the best medicine. Ready to laugh your ass off, are you? If you are looking for a book that makes you cringe, laugh, and unbelievably shake your head, this 's it! Smartphones have eternally changed our lives. At the speed of light, we can now text, and our phones can even guess what we intend to say. Or can they? Everyone's text crashes, and fortunately, we can now shoot these autocorrect wisdom pearls! Sometimes you're the one who sent a text fail, and now you're praying to God that you don't end up in one of these collections. But we're not discriminating! Here you'll find the epic text, and the autocorrect failed sent by everybody, from tech-challenged parents, confused boyfriends and girlfriends, and unsuspecting colleagues! No one here is secure (and they're all laughing)! Here's what's inside: Inability of a parent to make you want to weep and laugh at the same Autocorrect fails: it's DEFINITELY NOT what I intended. All those misguided texts fail that was meant for someone else More than 100 pages of pure, unadulterated text fall fun! A text message sent under the influence of alcohol A smart technique text that will get you a date Sarcastic text messages Funny savaged text messages Creating and delivering a funny joke is an innate ability humans have, although some chose not to explore those natural skills. A good joke can be created by just telling an honest story about your life. As the cliché goes, "be yourself." Don't be scared of making yourself fun sometimes. Life wasn't made to annoy people. Only sit quietly and let your mind flow. Start taking a conversation with friends and begin to speak. You'll be surprised; the jokes will only roll out of your mouth. At the end of the book, you too will be able to answer this way: "Mery: what's your name? Max: fine thanks!" If you're looking to spend hours and hours laughing like never before, get your copy right now! It's a book you should share with your friends and family to have some fun together.

Shtick to Business-Peter McGraw 2020-04 What do comedians know about killing it in business? Just ask a behavioral economist who teaches MBAs by day and decodes comedy by night. Dr. Peter McGraw--a business school professor, professional speaker, and founder of the Humor Research Lab (aka HuRL)--translates the genius and madness of the world's funniest people into powerful prescriptions for professional success. Drawing on cutting-edge research, case studies, and his own comedy successes (and failures), Peter reveals surprising business lessons from the masters of comedy: What Bill Murray and Groucho Marx know about career management. Why Dave Chappelle and Joan Rivers are a blueprint for brand building. What Tina Fey and Amy Poehler can teach you about leadership and teamwork. How Jerry Seinfeld's daily rituals made him the wealthiest comic alive. The insights in Shtick to Business will help you improve innovation and outsmart the competition. You'll build new skills--enhanced creativity, better decision-making, and a marketing mindset--to launch a business, tackle tough management problems, and build a serious career. And you'll never have to tell a joke.

One More Thing-B. J. Novak 2014-02-04 New York Times Bestseller B.J. Novak's One More Thing: Stories and Other Stories is an endlessly entertaining, surprisingly sensitive, and startlingly original debut that signals the arrival of a brilliant new voice in American fiction. A boy wins a $100,000 prize in a box of Frosted Flakes—only to discover that claiming the winnings might unravel his family. A woman sets out to seduce motivational speaker Tony Robbins—turning for help to the famed motivator himself. A new arrival in Heaven, overwhelmed with options, procrastinates over a long-ago promise to visit his grandmother. We meet Sophia, the first artificially intelligent being capable of love, who falls for a man who might not be ready for it himself; a vengeance-minded hare, obsessed with scoring a rematch against the tortoise who ruined his life; and post-college friends who try to figure out how to host an intervention in the era of Facebook. Along the way, we learn why wearing a red T-shirt every day is the key to finding love, how February got its name, and why the stock market is sometimes just . . . down. Finding inspiration in questions from the nature of perfection to the icing on carrot cake, One More Thing has at its heart the most human of phenomena: love, fear, hope, ambition, and the inner stirring for the one elusive element just that might make a person complete. Across a dazzling range of subjects, themes, tones, and narrative voices, the many pieces in this collection are like nothing else, but they have one thing in common: they share the playful humor, deep heart, sharp eye, inquisitive mind, and altogether electrifying spirit of a writer with a fierce devotion to the entertainment of the reader.
